Greeting and Blessing:

Many thanks for your telegram and good wishes,
which I heartily appreciate.

I can best reciprocate your warm sentiments and good wishes by reiterating the Divine blessing given to our Father Abraham, "I will bless them that bless thee." Accordingly, may you and yours enjoy G-d's blessings "from His full, open, holy, and generous Hand," both materially and spiritually.

The Zechus of your growing involvement in the work of spreading Yiddishkeit through the Chabad-Lubavitch institutions and projects, will surely stand you and all yours in good stead.

A this time, I send you my prayerful wishes that the Festival of Our Freedom bring you and yours a growing measure of true freedom, freedom from anxiety material and spiritual, from anything that might detract from serving G-d wholeheartedly and with joy,

And to carry over this freedom and joy into the whole year.

Wishing you and yours a Kosher and inspiring Pesach,

Cordially,

M. Schneerson
