Greeting and Blessing:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter.

Inasmuch as it was received on Chanukah, may G-d grant that you should enjoy a growing measure of brightness in all your affairs, both materially and spiritually, in the spirit of the Chanukah Lights which we kindle in growing numbers from day to day.

With blessing,

M. Schneerson

P.S. Mailing of the letter was delayed. Meantime answer to your letter was conveyed to you by phone through Rabbi Hodakov. He also related to me your answers to my questions re Chanukah-gelt and lighting the Candles by the children. As explained during Chanukah Farbreng, and partly in the special letters, the lighting of the Chanukah Lights has a special Segula in that they light up the home with the light of Torah and Mitzvoth, and also in the plain sense of making the home brighter in terms of health, material aspects, inner peace, harmony, etc., the effects of which continue throughout the year.
