Blessing and Greeting:

I was pleased to have had the opportunity to meet with you at the conclusion of the Convention of Nahei uBnos Chabad.

I am confident that you brought home with you lasting impressions of the Convention's proceedings. The essential thing is that these impressions, and certainly all the resolutions adopted at the Convention, should be translated into deeds by each and all the participants, with special resolve to extend these benefits and influences to all in the environment.

As a member of Nahei Chabad it is surely unnecessary to explain to you the importance of the Mitzvah of v'ohayto lre'acho komoicho, which is frequently emphasized in the teachings of Chasidus.

May G-d grant that these activities should be carried out in accordance with another equally emphatic principle of Chasidus, namely, with joy and inspiration.

With prayerful wishes for the fulfilment of your heart's desires for good in all the matters about which you wrote, and

With the traditional Shovuos blessing - to receive the Torah with joy and inwardness. M. Schneerson
