Blessing and Greeting:

I received your (undated) letter, and will remember you in prayer for the fulfillment of your heart's desires for good.

I trust it is unnecessary to emphasize to you at length that every additional effort to live up to the Will of G-d in accordance with the Jewish way of life, in addition to being a must for its own sake, is also the way to receive G-d's blessings in all needs. And however satisfactory this may be at any particular time, there is always room for improvement in all matters of goodness and holiness, Torah and Mitzvoth, since they are infinite, being derived from the Infinite.

May G-d grant that you should have good news to report in all above.

With blessing,

M. Schneerson
