Greeting and Blessing:

Having just observed the Yahrzeit of my father-in-law of saintly memory, in whose spirit our Torah institutions in Miami are conducted, and in which you have such a major role and privilege to be instrumental in their establishment and growth, it is natural that my thoughts should be turned to you at this time, coming from this auspicious day and about to enter the auspicious month of Adar.

I want to take this opportunity to reiterate to you again my prayerful wishes and confident hope that you should be able to report happy tidings both about the institutions, as well as about yourself and your family in all aspects, spiritually and materially. I hope and pray that you and your wife and family will be able to fulfill the teaching of our Torah, Toras Chaim, in regard to the coming month of Adar, namely "from the beginning of Adar joy should be on the increase," and that you should have many reasons for increased joy in good health and happy circumstances.

With warm personal regards, and

With blessing M. Schneerson
