Greeting and Blessings

I was gratified to be informed by our mutual friend, Mr. B. M. Joseph, Chairman of the forthcoming Banquet of the Friends of Merkos-Lubavitch in Minnesota, that you graciously accepted the invitation to participate in the Banquet personally.

Your appearance at this important event will certainly go a long way toward ensuring the success it deserves. It reaffirms once again your personal interest in the work of our movement in general, and in Minnesota in particular, which, please be assured, is very much appreciated.

May G-d grant you continued and growing success in all your activities and public work for an even better America and a better world.

With kindest personal regards and

With esteem and blessing

M. Schneerson
