Greeting and Blessing:

I received with pleasure your letters and good wishes in connection with our 50th wedding anniversary.

Since G-d promised our Father Abraham, "I will bless them that bless you," may G-d bless each and every one of you with ~~all~~ all good in the fullest measure.

I was pleased to see that you enjoy your lessons and are steadily improving in Torah and Mitzvot. May G-d bless you with Hatzlocho to go from strength to strength and to be a source of a true pride to your parents and teachers and all our Jewish people.

As we will soon celebrate Chanukah by kindling the Chanukah Lights in increasing numbers, I wish you all a bright and happy Chanukah.

With blessing

M. Schneerson
