Greeting and Blessing:

Your letter was received with some delay, and because of the urgency of the matter, my reply was conveyed to you over the telephone.

Here I will reiterate in writing, at least one point, based on what I heard from my father-in-law of saintly memory. It is that in regard to any child's education, especially in regard to a Jewish child, it should be borne in mind that if he will not be absorbed in a Kosher educational institution immediately, the opportunity may be lost altogether, and it becomes a matter of spiritual Pikuach Nefesh. On the other hand, the problem of financial capacity of the institution, although it may be difficult, could in time be resolved if the proper effort is made. The principle is similar and familiar also in the business world, and there is no need to elaborate on it, especially to you, knowing your dedication to Yiddishkeit in general, and Torah education in particular.

On the occasion of the birth of your granddaughter, I extend to you and all the family a hearty Mazel Tov, and prayerful wishes to have true Yiddish Nachas from each and all of your offspring.

At this time, with the approach of Rosh Hashono, may it bring us all, in the midst of our people, goodness and blessing,

I extend to you and yours prayerful wishes for a Kesivo vaChasimo Tovo, for a good and sweet year, materially and spiritually.

With blessing,

M. Schneerson
