Greeting and Blessing:

I received your letter of Nov. 9th with some delay. As requested, I will remember you in prayer for the fulfillment of your heart's desires for good in regard to yourself and the other members of your family.

There is surely no need to explain to you at length that all blessings come from G-d, and the channel to receive them is through the everyday life and conduct in accordance with His Will. Therefore, every additional effort in matters of Torah and Mitzvoth, though a must for their own sake, widens these channels.

It is also well to bear in mind that all members of a Jewish family constitute one entity, one body, where a benefit to one part is a benefit to all. Hence, an extra effort in Yiddishkeit on the part of one member of the family, especially parents, benefits each and all members of the family.

Receipt is enclosed for your Tzedoko, and may it bring you and yours additional Divine blessings.

With blessing,

M. Schneerson
