Mr.

Greeting and Blessing:

I received your letter of Oct. 10th, in which you write that you wish to produce a film that will deal with the Revelation at Mt. Sinai, etc.

There is surely no need to emphasize to you at length that since the subject matter is a highly responsible one, you ought to, first of all, consult with a competent Orthodox Rabbi, with whom you could discuss the matter personally, rather than through correspondence, and the like. Such a discussion should not only cover the subject in a general way, but also in every possible detail. And, needless to say, the approval of this project by an Orthodox Rabbi is a prerequisite. It is possible that he may also provide the guidance you require.

Judging by your writing, I trust it is unnecessary to emphasize to you at length the need to have regular Torah study periods, within the general everyday life and conduct in accordance with the Torah and Mitzvoth.

With blessing,
