Greeting and Blessing:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of Nov. 12, 1985. Many thanks for the good news it contained.

Though you do not mention it explicitly, I trust that you are advancing from strength to strength in matters of Yiddishkeit, Torah and Mitzvoh, in the everyday life and conduct, especially when additional Divine blessings are needed.

The above is particularly timely now that we are approaching the bright Festival of Chanukah, with its meaningful Mitzvo of the Chanukah Lights, as per enclosed copy of a general message, which I trust you will find useful.

Wishing you and yours a bright and inspiring Chanukah,

With blessing

M. Schneerson
