Greeting and Blessing:

After the interval, I was pleased to receive your let of 5Teves.

I trust that in the interval you have made considerable progress in both your personal affairs and, of course, also in the area of Torah and Mitzvos, which are interrelated.

I particularly have in mind the Mitzva of v'ohavto l're'- acho komoicho in terms of spreading Yiddishkeit all around by example and precept, with the assurance that words coming from the heart enter the heart.

Thank you for the good news about your daughter and her husband Rabbi Y. Eichenblatt, and may HaShem grant that you should always have good news to report.

With blessing,

M. Schneerson
