Greeting and Blessing:

I sincerely appreciate your kind expression of sympathy and condolence.

In the Torah, an expression of sympathy in a time of grief, invoking solace from the true Source of Consolation, is termed a "Blessing of Condolence," and is reciprocated with the blessing "May you be blessed from Heaven."

May HaShem bless you and yours with all good, in the kind of good that is revealed and obvious, materially and spiritually.

With esteem and blessing

M. Schneerson
