7th OPEC-India Energy Dialogue Held to Strengthen Energy Resilience

The Seventh High-Level Meeting of the OPEC-India Energy Dialogue was held to discuss global energy demand, investment, and supply resilience.

The OPEC-India Dialogue is a cooperative bilateral framework established to facilitate engagement between India and oil-producing nations.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- The Seventh High-Level Meeting of the OPEC-India Energy Dialogue was co-chaired by Union Petroleum Minister Hardeep Singh Puri and OPEC Secretary General Haitham Al Ghais.
- The dialogue emphasized sustained engagement between energy producers and consumers to boost investment and ensure reliable energy flows.
- Union Minister Hardeep Singh Puri stated that India will remain a major driver of global energy demand in the coming decade.
- The meeting focused on strengthening energy supply resilience amid rising global demand.
- The OPEC-India Energy Dialogue serves as an important institutional framework for India, which imports a significant portion of its crude oil from OPEC member countries.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

OPEC (Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries) was established in September 1960 at the Baghdad Conference.

The headquarters of OPEC is located in Vienna, Austria, although Austria itself is not an OPEC member.

OPEC currently has 12 member countries following the exit of Angola in January 2024.

India is the world's third-largest consumer and importer of crude oil, importing over 80% of its oil requirements.

The OPEC-India Dialogue was first launched in the year 2015 to institutionalize energy cooperation.

OPEC+ is an alliance of OPEC members and 10 other major non-OPEC oil-exporting nations, including Russia, formed in 2016.

Under Sustainable Development Goal 7 (SDG 7), the United Nations aims to ensure access to affordable, reliable, sustainable, and modern energy for all by 2030.

REVISION FLASHCARD

OPEC-India Energy Dialogue started in 2015; 7th high-level meeting co-chaired by Hardeep Singh Puri and Haitham Al Ghais in 2026.

Syllabus Relevance: High relevance for questions on international organizations (OPEC), India's energy security, and bilateral dialogues.

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca