CURRENT EVENTS 21 October 2026

Asian Para Games 2026: Sukhchain, Karamjyoti, and Pranav Desai Win Bronze Medals

Indian athletes Sukhchain, Karamjyoti, and Pranav Desai secured bronze medals in athletics at the Asian Para Games 2026.

The Asian Para Games is a multi-sport event held every four years for athletes with physical disabilities, following the Asian Games.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- Sukhchain secured the bronze medal in the men's javelin throw F55 final at the Asian Para Games 2026 in Nagoya.
- Sukhchain recorded a throw of 29.94 metres to claim the third spot on the podium.
- China's Zhou Feifei won the gold medal with a throw of 37.63 metres, breaking a 22-year-old record.
- Iran's Zafar Zaker secured the silver medal with a personal best performance of 36.00 metres.
- Pranav Desai won a bronze medal in the men's 100m T64 event.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

The Asian Para Games are regulated by the Asian Paralympic Committee.

India has steadily increased its medal tally in international multi-sport events like the Paralympics and Asian Para Games.

Major Dhyan Chand National Sports Day is celebrated annually in India on August 29 to honour sports achievers.

The Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports administers various sports promotion schemes and awards in India.

The Target Olympic Podium Scheme (TOPS) supports elite Indian athletes for international competitions.

Tamil Nadu has produced numerous national and international athletes through dedicated sports infrastructure and development policies.

REVISION FLASHCARD

Sukhchain won bronze in the men's javelin throw F55 at the Asian Para Games 2026.

Syllabus Relevance: Important for questions regarding international sports events, medal winners, and Indian athletes in multi-sport championships.

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca