POLITY & CONSTITUTION 17 October 2026

Centre Notifies CAPF Act 2026 Amid Supreme Court Challenge

The Ministry of Home Affairs notified the Central Armed Police Forces (General Administration) Act, 2026, amid ongoing legal challenges and contempt proceedings.

The CAPF Act, 2026 governs administrative matters, cadre management, and the deputation of Indian Police Service officers to senior positions in central security forces.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- The Ministry of Home Affairs notified that the Central Armed Police Forces (General Administration) Act, 2026 came into force from October 8, 2026.
- The new legislation impacts cadre management and the deputation of Indian Police Service officers to senior positions in the Central Armed Police Forces.
- Serving CAPF officers have challenged the law through petitions currently pending in the Supreme Court.
- The notification comes nearly five months after the legislation was passed by Parliament.
- The law is a key issue in separate contempt proceedings regarding the Supreme Court's May 23, 2025 judgment on CAPF cadre issues.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

Article 33 of the Constitution empowers Parliament to restrict or abrogate fundamental rights for members of the Armed Forces and Paramilitary Forces to ensure the proper discharge of their duties.

Central Armed Police Forces function under the administrative control of the Ministry of Home Affairs.

The five major forces comprising the Central Armed Police Forces include CRPF, BSF, CISF, ITBP, and SSB.

Under Article 246, Parliament has exclusive power to make laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in List I in the Seventh Schedule (Union List), which includes defence and central forces.

Contempt of Courts Act was enacted in the year 1971 to define and limit the powers of courts in punishing contempt of courts.

Article 142 of the Constitution provides the Supreme Court with inherent power to pass any decree or order necessary for doing complete justice in any cause or matter pending before it.

REVISION FLASHCARD

The Central Armed Police Forces (General Administration) Act, 2026 was notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs to regulate cadre management and IPS deputations.

Syllabus Relevance: Important for understanding parliamentary acts, administrative frameworks of central security forces, and judicial review under Indian Polity.

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca