POLITY & CONSTITUTION 30 October 2026

Constitution must guide judiciary where law is silent: CJI Surya Kant

Chief Justice of India Surya Kant delivered the keynote address during the 60th anniversary celebrations of the Delhi High Court in New Delhi.

An authoritative judicial observation emphasizing that constitutional principles of dignity, liberty, and equality must govern technological and contemporary legal gaps where statutory laws are silent.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- Chief Justice of India Surya Kant stated that the Constitution must guide the judiciary where the law is silent.
- The remarks were made on October 30, 2026, during the diamond jubilee celebrations of the Delhi High Court.
- Supreme Court Judge Vikram Nath also participated in the inaugural event held at the DHC Auditorium in New Delhi.
- The CJI noted that the judiciary faces complex questions in the technology era that were scarcely imaginable a decade ago.
- Constitutional promises of dignity, liberty, and equality remain constant despite rapid technological advancements.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

Article 124 of the Indian Constitution provides for the establishment and constitution of the Supreme Court.

Article 214 of the Constitution provides for High Courts for each State in India.

Article 141 declares that the law declared by the Supreme Court shall be binding on all courts within the territory of India.

Article 142 grants the Supreme Court jurisdiction to pass decrees and orders necessary for doing complete justice in any pending case.

The Delhi High Court was established on October 31, 1966, under the Delhi High Court Act, 1966.

The basic structure doctrine of the Indian Constitution was propounded by the Supreme Court in the landmark Kesavananda Bharati case (1973).

REVISION FLASHCARD

Where the law is silent, the Constitution must guide the judiciary: CJI Surya Kant.

Syllabus Relevance: Highly relevant for Indian Polity questions regarding judicial activism, Supreme Court powers, and constitutional interpretation under Unit 5.

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca