POLITY & CONSTITUTION 27 October 2026

Digital News Publishers Challenge Privacy Law in Supreme Court

The Digital News Publishers Association filed a petition challenging the Union government's privacy law, which is scheduled for hearing before a three-judge Supreme Court Bench headed by Chief Justice of India Surya Kant.

A legal challenge brought by media associations against the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, contending that compliance norms impact journalistic freedom and the protection of confidential sources.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- The Digital News Publishers Association challenged the Union government's privacy law in the Supreme Court, citing violations of journalistic freedom.
- A three-judge Bench headed by Chief Justice of India Surya Kant scheduled the hearing for October 27, 2026.
- The Union government announced the implementation of the Digital Personal Data Protection Act in 2025 to safeguard digital user data.
- Petitions argue that compliance requirements under the privacy legislation harm press freedom and confidentiality of journalistic sources.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

Article 19(1)(a) of the Indian Constitution guarantees freedom of speech and expression, which encompasses the freedom of the press.

The Supreme Court of India acts as the guardian of the Constitution under Article 32, empowering citizens to approach it for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights.

The Digital Personal Data Protection Act sets the legal framework for processing digital personal data in India.

Public Interest Litigations (PIL) enable judicial review in the Supreme Court under Article 32 and High Courts under Article 226 for matters of public importance.

Judicial review empowers the Supreme Court to declare any legislative enactment or executive action unconstitutional if it violates Fundamental Rights.

REVISION FLASHCARD

The Digital News Publishers Association challenged the Digital Personal Data Protection Act in the Supreme Court over press freedom concerns.

Syllabus Relevance: Crucial for understanding Fundamental Rights, press freedom, and Supreme Court jurisdiction under Indian Polity (Unit 5).

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca