SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY 24 October 2026

ISRO Will Not Be Privatised, Clarifies Chairperson Narayanan

ISRO Chairperson V. Narayanan clarified during a graduation ceremony on October 24, 2026, that the space agency will remain under government control despite increasing private sector participation.

The official policy stance and operational framework governing the role of the Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) and private entities in India's space sector.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- ISRO Chairperson V. Narayanan categorically stated on October 24, 2026, that the space agency will not be privatised.
- Dr. V. Narayanan serves as the Secretary of the Department of Space, Chairman of ISRO, and Chairman of the Space Commission.
- Contributions and operational roles from private companies in the space sector should not be misinterpreted as the privatisation of ISRO.
- Private sector roles will continue to grow under the 2023 space policy aimed at boosting space-faring capabilities and creating jobs.
- The Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) remains firmly under the administrative control of the Government of India.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

ISRO was established on August 15, 1969, with its headquarters located in Bengaluru, Karnataka.

Dr. Vikram Sarabhai is widely recognized as the founding father of the Indian space program.

IN-SPACe (Indian National Space Promotion and Authorisation Centre) was established as a single-window nodal agency to promote and authorize private space activities in India.

NewSpace India Limited (NSIL), incorporated in 2019, acts as the commercial arm of ISRO under the Department of Space.

URSC (U.R. Rao Satellite Centre) in Bengaluru is the lead centre responsible for the design, development, and realization of all ISRO satellites.

The Department of Space (DOS) directly oversees ISRO, the Space Commission, and autonomous bodies like the Physical Research Laboratory (PRL).

REVISION FLASHCARD

ISRO will remain under government control and will not be privatised, clarified Chairperson V. Narayanan in October 2026.

Syllabus Relevance: Important for TNPSC Group 1 and 2 Science & Technology questions regarding ISRO, space policy, and institutional frameworks.

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca