Kerala State Biodiversity Board Submits Policy Document Against Invasive Species

The Kerala State Biodiversity Board submitted a comprehensive policy document proposing a seven-point strategic plan to mitigate threats from invasive alien species to the State government in October 2026.

A strategic policy framework formulated by the Kerala State Biodiversity Board focusing on the prevention, monitoring, and management of invasive alien species affecting native ecosystems.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- The Kerala State Biodiversity Board proposed a seven-point strategic plan in October 2026 to address invasive alien species.
- The policy document emphasizes early prevention, continuous monitoring, and containment of invasive alien species across Kerala's forest ecosystems.
- Lantana camara was highlighted as a prominent invasive alien species adversely affecting forest ecosystems in the State.
- The strategic framework stresses generating public awareness and capacity-building to effectively manage ecological threats.
- The policy document was recently submitted directly to the State government for administrative action and implementation.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

The Biological Diversity Act was enacted by the Parliament of India in 2002 to preserve biological diversity in the country.

The National Biodiversity Authority (NBA) was established in 2003 under Section 8 of the Biological Diversity Act, 2002.

Article 48A of the Indian Constitution directs the State to protect and improve the environment and safeguard forests and wildlife.

State Biodiversity Boards (SBBs) are constituted under Section 22 of the Biological Diversity Act to advise state governments on biodiversity matters.

India is a party to the Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD) which was signed during the Earth Summit in 1992.

Invasive alien species are considered one of the primary direct drivers of biodiversity loss and ecosystem degradation globally.

REVISION FLASHCARD

Kerala State Biodiversity Board proposed a seven-point policy document in October 2026 to manage invasive alien species.

Syllabus Relevance: Highly relevant for TNPSC Group 1 and Group 2 questions on environmental policy, biodiversity conservation acts, and ecological management.

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca