

Kerala, TN CMs Discuss 'Operation Toofan' on Drug Menace

Kerala Home Minister met Tamil Nadu CM to discuss inter-state anti-drug efforts and 'Operation Toofan'.

'Operation Toofan' is a coordinated anti-drug initiative focused on combating drug trafficking and peddling across southern states.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- Kerala Home Minister Ramesh Chennithala met Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C. Joseph Vijay.
- The meeting took place at the Secretariat in Chennai on July 15, 2026.
- Discussions focused on establishing a coordinated mechanism among the five southern States.
- The primary objective is to crack down on drug peddlers and combat the menace of narcotic drugs.
- The specific inter-state operation discussed was 'Operation Toofan'.

STATICS & SYLLABUS FOCUS

The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act was enacted in 1985 to consolidate and amend laws relating to narcotic drugs.

The Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB), established in 1986, is the nodal agency for drug law enforcement in India.

Inter-state coordination is vital for effectively combating organized crime like drug trafficking.

The Tamil Nadu government has implemented various initiatives to curb drug abuse and trafficking within the state.

Border security plays a crucial role in preventing the entry and exit of illicit drugs.

Chief Ministers often engage in inter-state dialogues to address common challenges and foster regional cooperation.

REVISION FLASHCARD

Kerala and TN CMs discussed 'Operation Toofan' for southern states' anti-drug coordination.

Syllabus Relevance: Medium

Daily Practice & Mock Tests

Practice matching MCQs on this topic and unlock comprehensive mock test series for free on ESSAAR.

Start Test Series: essaaracademy.in/practice