CURRENT EVENTS 30 September 2026

Supreme Court Directs on Doxxing, Deepfakes, and Privacy

The Supreme Court recently disposed of a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) on doxxing and deepfakes, directing Union Ministries to take remedial measures.

This issue concerns the interconnected challenges of surveillance, privacy, and accountability involving state, private firms, and online networks in India.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- In August 2026, the Supreme Court disposed of a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) concerning doxxing and deepfakes.
- The Court directed the Union Ministries to implement remedial measures to address these issues.
- Earlier in July, Rajya Sabha member A.A. Rahim had filed a petition with the top court on the same matter.
- The article emphasizes that surveillance is not the sole privacy concern, highlighting broader issues.
- It raises questions about accountability when protesters are identified by cameras, doxxed, and threatened.
- The discussion also includes privacy implications of electoral-roll decisions and police data held by private companies.

DID YOU KNOW..!?

The Supreme Court, in the landmark K.S. Puttaswamy v. Union of India case (2017), declared the Right to Privacy as a fundamental right.

The Right to Privacy is protected as an intrinsic part of the Right to Life and Personal Liberty under Article 21 of the Indian Constitution.

The Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, aims to regulate the processing of digital personal data in India.

Doxxing refers to the act of publicly revealing private personal information about an individual or organization online, often with malicious intent.

Deepfakes are synthetic media in which a person in an existing image or video is replaced with someone else's likeness using artificial intelligence.

A Public Interest Litigation (PIL) is a legal action initiated in a court of law for the enforcement of public interest or general welfare.

The Rajya Sabha, or Council of States, is the upper house of the bicameral Parliament of India.

REVISION FLASHCARD

Supreme Court directed Union Ministries on doxxing and deepfakes in August 2026.

Syllabus Relevance: High

Daily Current Affairs
Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.
Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca