

TN Budget: Specialised Government Law College to be Set Up in Madurai

The Tamil Nadu Finance Minister announced the establishment of a new specialised Law College in Madurai during the Budget speech.

An educational initiative under the TN Budget to enhance legal higher education and reform medical admission criteria in the state.

KEY EXAM POINTS

- A new specialised Government Law College will be established in Madurai on par with the School of Excellence in Law.
- The new specialized law college in Madurai will commence its operations from the 2027-28 academic year.
- Finance Minister Marie Wilson presented the Revised Budget in the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly.
- The State Budget urged the Union government to abolish NEET-based admissions for medical courses immediately.
- The Tamil Nadu government reiterated its demand to restore medical admissions based on Class XII public examination marks.

STATICS & SYLLABUS FOCUS

The Dr. Ambedkar Government Law College in Chennai, established in 1891, is the oldest law college in Tamil Nadu.

The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University (TNDALU) was established in 1997 in Chennai as India's first specialized law university.

The School of Excellence in Law (SOEL) was established in 2002 under TNDALU to offer premium legal education.

Tamil Nadu passed the Admission to Undergraduate Medical Degree Courses Act, 2021 to dispense with NEET requirements.

Education was moved from the State List to the Concurrent List under the 42nd Constitutional Amendment Act in 1976.

Article 246 of the Indian Constitution distributes legislative powers between the Union and the State legislatures across three lists.

REVISION FLASHCARD

TN Budget announced a specialized Law College in Madurai on par with the School of Excellence in Law.

Syllabus Relevance: Highly relevant for Group 1, 2, 2A, 4 exams under Unit 9 (Education in TN) and Unit 2 (Current Events).

Daily Current Affairs

Read the most important daily exam-relevant news summaries easily on Essaar.

Read Online: essaaracademy.in/ca