Primary Benefits

- + Delivers restorative topical benefits and promotes the look of renewed and revived skin
- + Soothes minor skin irritations
- + Reduces the appearance of skin imperfections

Description

Native to Hawai'i, Naio Wood is sustainably harvested from trees that thrive alongside the cherished 'Iliahi (Hawaiian Sandalwood). This unique oil embodies the spirit of traditional Hawaiian wellness practices. Naio trees, which can range from sprawling shrubs to majestic 30-foot giants, yield this essential oil with a captivating, earthy, sweet aroma. Because of its α-bisabolol content, Naio Wood essential oil has many powerful benefits, being soothing to the skin and reducing the appearance of skin imperfections.

Naio Wood is sourced in the Kealakekua Mountain Reserve, a dōTERRA Cō-Impact Sourcing® initiative and home to the largest reforestation effort in Hawaiian history. Naio Wood essential oil is featured in the Frankincense Stick + Naio Wood.

Uses
