eBay

Yesterday I cleared up my house and I mean really cleared up my house. The room that gave the most results was my husband's 'office.' There I found: one right-footed walking boot, size 10 (he lost the other one somewhere), a garden badminton set, complete with rackets and a net (we decided to get fit last summer and played with it once), a set of Star Wars videos and two small china cats someone gave me last birthday; I collected these and other 'finds', took them downstairs and logged on to www.eBay.com: the answer to all our rubbish — or 'one person's junk is another person's treasure'.

What is eBay? The simple answer is that it is the world's most popular auction house. The website says, 'eBay's mission is to provide a global trading platform where practically anyone can trade practically anything,' – yes, even one right – footed boot. People can sell and buy in a range of over 300 categories, including cars and other vehicles, movies and DVDs, sporting goods, collectibles, travel tickets, musical instruments, real estate, clothes and shoes, jewellery – the list goes on and on.

The idea came from Peter Omidyar, Born in Paris, Omidyar, moved to Washington when he was still a child. At High School he became very interested in computer programming and after graduating from Tuft University in 1988, he worked for the next few years as a computer engineer. In his free time he started eBay as a kind of hobby, originally offering the service free by word of mouth. By 1996 there was so much traffic on the site that he had to upgrade and he began charging a fee to members. Joined by a friend, Peter Skoll, and in 1998 by his dynamic CEO, Meg Whitman, he has never looked back. Even the great dot com crashes of the late 1990s eBay went from strength to strength. It is now one of the ten most visited online shopping sites on the internet.

If you think about it, it's a perfect internet idea. It sells connections not goods, putting buyers and seller into contact with each other. All you have to do is take an e-photo, write a description, fill out a sales form and you're in business; the world is your market place. Oh, and of course for each item sold e-Bay gets a percentage and that is a great deal of money: Everyday there are more than sixteen million items listed on eBay and eighty percent of items are sold.

Some of the more bizarre items up for offer have been a piece of French toast, partially eaten by Justin Timberlake, advertising space on a man's head, a pair of used false teeth, and 'Nothing' (the seller said he would give the profits to a local university).

One week later I am the proud possessor of a clean and tidy home and €110 in cash. Someone even bought the boot.

III - Writing

Nowadays science has made it possible for a couple who can't have children to pay a woman to have their baby for them. These 'surrogate' mothers sign a contract promising to give the baby to the couple as soon as it is born, in return for a large sum of money. --(36)-- this business arrangement does not always work well in practice and, -- (37) --- as a result, there have been a number of 'horror stories' in the newspapers recently.

People have strong feelings on both sides. Some say that it is every woman's right to have a child. ---(38) ---, a surrogate mother can often save an unhappy marriage and make some money for herself. ---(39)---, many people are against this practice. They say that ---(40)--- they understand the heartache of a childless woman, having a baby is not an automatic right. They feel the whole thing is completely unnatural and ---(41)--- should not be allowed. ---(42)---, they ask what will happen to the child when he or she is old enough to know the truth. This could be a terrible effect on their mental and emotional development. I feel that this last point is particularly important and, ---(43)---, I tend to agree that surrogacy is wrong, or at least that there should be stricter rules about it.
