

Unusual Natural Phenomena

1. Where are the Chocolate Hills located?
  - Peru
  - Philippines
  - Thailand
  - Indonesia

2. Where can you find a river known as the "Liquid Rainbow"?
  - Mexico
  - Colombia
  - Peru
  - Brazil

3. In which desert can you find mysterious "fairy circles"?
  - Sahara
  - Namib
  - Gobi
  - Kalahari

4. What is the cause of the red deposit in Blood Falls in East Antarctica?
  - Volcanic activity
  - Iron oxide-rich brine
  - Animal blood
  - Red algae

5. What is the primary cause of light pillars?

- Refraction
- Reflection
- Diffraction
- Dispersion

6. Where can you find the Rainbow Mountains?

- Mongolia
- China
- Nepal
- Bhutan

7. Where can you find Eternal Flames Falls?

- New York
- Pennsylvania
- Ohio
- Michigan

8. What is the name of the UNESCO site in Northern Ireland, consisting of around 40,000 basalt columns?

- Giant's Causeway
- Skellig Michael
- Blarney Causeway
- Cliffs of Moher

9. Where can you find Kjeragbolten, a large glacial deposit wedged in a large crevice in the mountain?

- Norway
- Austria
- Switzerland
- Slovenia

10. Where can you find the red Lake Natron, which is poisonous to most animals?

- Somalia
- Tanzania
- Mozambique
- Zimbabwe

11. Where are the Moeraki Boulders located?

- Australia
- New Zealand
- Hawaii
- The Caribbean

12. Where can you find the Rainbow Eucalyptus tree?

- Africa
- South America
- Southeast Asia
- Australia