

Animal Idioms

1. What does the phrase "have ants in your pants" mean?
 - To be sick
 - To be nervous
 - To be angry

2. How much do you take when you take "the lion's share" of something?
 - You share equally
 - You take the least
 - You take the majority

3. What does it mean to be "pig-headed"?
 - Stubborn
 - Lazy
 - Greedy

4. What is the meaning of the phrase "a leopard can't change its spots"?
 - It is impossible to change one's nature
 - It is impossible to change one's appearance
 - It is impossible to change one's opinions

5. When you tell somebody to "get their ducks in a row", you want them to be:
 - Chaotic
 - Confident
 - Organized

6. What does it mean when someone is like "a bull in a china shop"?
 - They are funny
 - They are destructive and careless
 - They are somewhere where they don't belong

7. How do you feel when you are like "a deer caught in the headlights"?
- Shocked
 - Overwhelmed
 - Frozen with fear
8. What does the phrase "get someone's goat" mean?
- To make someone angry
 - To annoy someone
 - To steal someone's pet
9. What do you do when you "let the cat out of the bag"?
- You reveal a secret
 - You tell a lie
 - You keep a secret
10. What does the phrase "to make a beeline" mean?
- To lie in a meadow
 - To take a long route
 - To take a direct route
11. What does the phrase "the world is your oyster" mean?
- You are disgusting
 - You have unlimited potential
 - You are close-minded
12. What does the phrase "straight from the horse's mouth" mean?
- To get the news from social media
 - To get the news from a close friend
 - To get the news from a reliable source
13. What does the phrase "let sleeping dogs lie" mean?
- To leave a situation alone
 - To ignore a problem
 - To cause trouble

14. What does the phrase "dog eat dog" mean?

- To be kind to one another
- To be competitive and ruthless
- To be loyal and protective

15. What does it mean when something is described as "fishy"?

- Smelly
- Colorful
- Suspicious