Olinda Oil Museum and Trail

The regular open hours tours for the month totaled 72 visitors. It was a busy month with a consistent turnout on the weekends. The warmer weather will increase the number of visitors. There were no special group tours in April. The City of Brea is assisting the American Association of Petroleum Geologist AAPG with their planning stages preparing for their centennial event at the OOMT in September.

The trail's popularity remains high with it being a favorite for walkers and hikers in and around Brea. Along with Rattle Snake warnings, 'Tick Warning' signs have been placed at the trail entry points as this season the Tick abundance is a concern across the full Puente Hills. The warning is especially an issue with kids and dogs, and adults are told to check the group for Ticks after every hike. The Oil Workers Cottage wash porch has been fully accessorized to include laundry on the clothesline. Brea's Parks Maintenance is working on reported repairs. The issues with water leaks and runoff drainage control are being worked. The public water fountain has been repaired making the picnic area fully functional again.

The OOMT docents continue to support the Community Services organization to assure the transition to City of Brea operations are complete, affective, and transparent. The OOMT staff is arranging working meetings to develop an operation Handbook to go along with the guidelines being put together by City staff. The Teamwork room is set up.

Special Events

Spring Craft Boutique

The Spring Craft Boutique was a two-day event this year, held on March 15th and 16th at the Brea Community Center. There were over 2,100 customers and community members who shopped at the 24th annual City of Brea Spring Craft Boutique. The boutique featured 200 vendors, selling unique one-of-a-kind seasonal and year-round gifts and décor, wearable art, jewelry, florals, baby items, tasty goodies, and much more. This is an enjoyable event where the community can shop locally, sample, and purchase unique items from small business owners.

Family Films of 2024

We are so excited to announce the 2024 summer Family Film Series starting June 21st through July 19th at the Civic and Cultural Center. We will be showing Cars 3, Shrek, Moana, and Inside Out. Please bring a chair or a blanket and be ready to watch these films under the stars at 8 p.m. or when dark. We love it when our community is able to come together and enjoy a summer evening. We are also very grateful for our partner Sheila Bounauro Realty Team who provides cotton candy, popcorn and other awesome items. If you would like to participate in this event or need more information please reach our Special Events team at BreaSpecialEvents@cityofbrea.net or 714-990-7771.

Fifth Annual Pet Expo

Community Services held the fifth Annual Pet Expo on Saturday, April 6th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Brea Community Center. There were over 1,500 community members who participated in this fun event. The Pet Expo featured over 113 vendors, highlighting pet products, learning opportunities and pet adoptions. Adoptions resulted in 50 animals finding new homes, including dogs, cats and rabbits. We beat all 2023 numbers with community members, vendors and adoptions, so we know that our community loves this one!

Three K-9 demonstrations took place, one at 10 a.m. with Anaheim Police Department and then at 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. with Brea Police Department and they were all a huge success with the community. Both agencies were able to walk the community through a variety of K-9 techniques, including a drug sniffing drill, dog obedience and simulation bite.

The event was a success due to the teamwork of Community Services, the Print Shop, the Police Department and Public Works. Thank you all for your hard work!

2024 Country Fair—July 4th

The 44th Annual Country Fair will be held on Thursday, July 4th at City Hall Park. The day will begin with the Kiwanis Club serving a pancake breakfast, followed by the Brea Ministerial Association morning service. There will be a variety of non-profit food booths out at the event, serving various foods. Continuous entertainment will be held in the bandstand featuring Anthony Riveria and the Raining Horseshoes, PAVA and other guest performances will be on centerstage as well. Guests of all ages will be able to enjoy food, games, the Beautiful Baby Contest, carnival rides, Pony Ride, Petting Zoo, Pie Eating Contest, Hula Hoop Contest (a Collectible Car Show and an antique car display), free swimming in the Brea Plunge. Captain America, Captain Marvel, Superman, Wonder Woman, Spiderman and Supergirl will all be at this very fun and patriotic event. We will also be hosting our Patriotic Pooch Parade from 10:15-10:45 a.m. and the Kiddie Parade from 10:45-11 a.m. We would love for everyone to join in for this, and lots of fun prizes will be handed out.
