The Story of a Passionate Family

Victoriaville & Co. was born out of the determination, the leadership and the will to succeed of its founders. Much of our success is due to the economic well-being of an entire region renowned for the quality of its hardwood products.

For the last seven decades, all details have been taken into account when designing, manufacturing, and finishing our hardwood products. We are well aware that each unit we produce is destined to a person with a unique life story and a unique set of memories that they leave behind. This is why we believe each product has a rich emotional value that is worthy of our respect.

Style and design delivered with care and compassion.

The Victoriaville & Co. difference.

What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone monuments,
but what is woven into the lives of others.
