INTRODUCTION & WELCOME
Rev. John Cooper

BIBLE READING - Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the mountains - where does my help come from?
My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot slip - he who watches over you will not slumber;
indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord watches over you - the Lord is your shade at your right hand;
the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all harm - he will watch over your life;
the Lord will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

BIBLE READING - Luke 7: 11 - 17

Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him.
As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out - the only son of his mother, and she was a widow.
And a large crowd from the town was with her.
When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, "Don't cry."
Then he went up and touched the bier they were carrying him on, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!"
The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.
They were all filled with awe and praised God. "A great prophet has appeared among us," they said. "God has come to help his people."
This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.

REFLECTION HYMN

“The Lord’s My Shepherd” - The Guildford Cathedral Choir

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want, he makes me down to lie - in pastures green he leadeth me, the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make - within the paths of righteousness, e'vn for his own name sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill - for thou art with me and thy rod, and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished, in presence of my foes,
my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life, shall surely follow me, and in God's house forever more, my dwelling place shall be.

ADDRESS

Rev. John Cooper

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen

DOXOLOGY

Rev. John Cooper

Now to him who is able to keep us from falling, and to present us faultless before the presence of his glory with everlasting joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever.

All: Amen.

The family would like to thank you for your presence here today, for your kind thoughts, prayers and for your expressions of sympathy and support. Friends and family of Betty are warmly invited to enjoy light refreshments at 14 Stewart Crescent after the service.
