THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen

REFLECTION MUSIC & PERSONAL FAREWELL

“Huntin’, Fishin’, And Lovin’ Every Day” - Luke Bryan

COMMITTAL

Peter Howe

During these last moments we pay our final respects to Mick and wish him the fulfilment of everlasting peace.

There are times when we must remind ourselves that only nature itself is permanent. All that has life - has a beginning and an end. Life exists in the time span between the birth and death of individuals, who in turn pass on the process of life through their children and their children's children.

Life's significance lies in the experiences and achievements within that period.

The final parting, signified by death, is bound to bring shock and sorrow.

Whenever the ties of love and friendship are severed, it is natural for those who feel deeply to grieve deeply - as no philosophy or religion can prevent the great sense of loss we feel when a loved one is taken from us.

We are grateful that Mick was and shall remain a part of your lives.

We shall remember him as a living vital presence, and this will bring peace to your hearts and strengthen you in times of trouble.

We brought nothing into the world and we can take nothing out of the world.

We here commit, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, the body of Mick back to its natural place in the universe and in so doing, we recognise and revere it as the vessel throughout life, of the personality of our dearly departed.

With much love and respect we bid Mick farewell. Thus in thinking of Mick let us leave this sacred place in quietness of spirit and live with compassion and love for each other.
