POEM READING "DAD"

Read by Mitch

He never looked for praises
He was never one to boast
He just went on quietly working
For the one he loved the most.

His dreams were seldom spoken
His wants were very few
And most of the time his worries
Went unspoken too

He was there...a firm foundation
Through all our storms of life
A sturdy hand to hold on to
In terms of stress and strife

A true friend we could turn to
When times were good or bad
One of our greatest blessings
The man that we called Dad

POEM READING “REMEMBER ME”

Read by Debbie

Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good time, laughter and fun.

Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer's sun,
and when the winter's chill has come.

I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
but memories we've shared are yours to keep.

Sometimes our final days may be a test,
but remember me when I was at my best.

Although things may not be the same,
don't be afraid to use my name.

Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.
