Until We Meet Again

Each morning when we awake we know that you are gone.
And no one knows the heartache as we try to carry on.

Our hearts still ache with sadness and many tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.

Our thoughts are always with you, your place no one can fill.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still.

There will always be a heartache and often a silent tear
But always a precious memory of the days when you were here.

If tears could build a staircase and heartaches make a lane,
We'd walk a path to heaven and bring you back again.

We hold you close within our hearts and there you will remain, to walk with us throughout our lives until we meet again.

Our family chain is broken now and nothing will be the same.
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get well on Earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.
