Authors

Víctor Rodríguez

With an unexpected path to filming, I found at a young age what I really enjoy doing. Tell stories, capture landscapes from the air, and venture into the sates of Mexico. By growing up in Cancun I developed a love for the sea, "cenotes", and nature in general, which leads me to constantly be in search of new places to explore.

Josué Vázquez

I am fortunate to be able to dedicate myself to what I like. I really enjoy doing portrait, documentary, artistic and advertising photography; I love being active, exercising, writing poetry, reading short stories, drawing what my mind tells me, and doing a series of activities that inspire me to express, be proactive and above all that reinvent me as a person to always be someone better. I'm a Football fan and loyal supporter of the Minnesota Vikings.
