7. Appropriateness Test

- 7.1. MiFID II makes a distinction between services that are simply a matter of execution and those where prior assessment is required to determine the extent to which the service and/or the product is “appropriate” to the client’s needs and circumstances and “appropriate” to the client’s level of knowledge and experience. For the purposes of assessment of appropriateness, MiFID II requires certain information on clients to be obtained and formally assessed in order to ensure such appropriateness; to satisfy this requirement, we have designed an appropriateness test which we will apply to clients before providing investment services, unless the client is classified as “professional client” or “eligible counterparty”.
- 7.2. Subject always to any applicable obligations in the Regulations, the Client is responsible for making an independent appraisal and investigation into the risks of a particular transaction. The Company gives no warranty as to the appropriateness of the Financial Instruments and investment services and assumes no fiduciary duty in its relations with the Client. Where applicable to the categorization of the Client and only in relation to Financial Instruments and services subject to the Regulations, the Company will assess the appropriateness of proposed Financial Instruments, investment services and activities for the Client. The Company will warn the Client if it concludes that a particular investment service or Financial Instrument is not appropriate for the Client, subject to the Client providing sufficient information to allow the Company to conduct the assessment of appropriateness and will not provide its services if the Company determines based on the said test that the client does not have the necessary knowledge and expertise to receive such services.
- 7.3. We shall assume that information about your knowledge and experience is accurate and shall bear no responsibility if such information is inaccurate or changes without informing us and as a result we will not be able to follow our regulatory requirements of appropriateness. If you fail to provide sufficient information in this regard, we will not be able to assess whether you have the necessary knowledge and experience to understand the risks involved. If you still wish us to proceed on your behalf, we may do so, but we shall not be able to determine whether trading in CFDs is appropriate for you. Consequently, we strongly advise you to provide us with accurate information which we believe to be necessary for the purpose of enabling us to assess the appropriateness / suitability of our products for you.
- 7.4. Warning that Service/Financial Instruments may not be appropriate: In the event that the Company deals with the Client on an execution-only basis for the buying or selling of complex products, the Company is required to make an assessment as to whether the product or service being provided or offered is appropriate for the Client. In this case, the elements to be assessed will be the Client’s knowledge and experience in the investment sector relating to that particular category of financial instrument offered or required, so as to secure that the Client is aware of any risks. Where the Client is a Professional Client, the Company is entitled to assume that he/she has the necessary experience and knowledge to enable him/her to understand the risks involved in relation to those particular investment services or transactions, or types of transaction or product, for which he/she has been classified as a professional client. If the Client does not consider that he/she does has the necessary knowledge and experience, he/she must make the Company aware of this prior to the provision of such product or service and provide the Company with any available information as to the level of his/her knowledge and experience. The Company accepts no liability in these circumstances.

The Company may refuse the Client the execution of Transactions in case of lack or clarify or if the instructions and do not include essential operations such as opening position, closing position, changing or removing Orders.
- 11.3. During the course of this Agreement in relation to all individual Financial Instruments trading the Company shall execute Client Orders according to the Best Interests and Order Execution Policy, which is binding on the Client, in an own account basis, i.e. as principal to principal and/or in an STP/ECN model.

- 11.10. Orders shall be valid in accordance with the type and time of the given Order, as specified by the Client. - 11.15. The Client's orders are executed at the "BID"/ "ASK" prices offered by the Company and which the Client can see in the Electronic Trading Platform. The Client places his/her order at the prices he/she sees on his/her Client terminal and the execution process is initiated. Normally the transaction is executed at the prices the Client can see on his/her Client terminal. Due to the high volatility of the markets as well as the internet connectivity between the Client terminal and the server, the prices requested by the Client and the current market price may change, during the confirmation process. In this event, the Company has the right to decline the Client's requested price and offer a new price. The Client can either accept the new price and execute the transaction or refuse the new price, thus cancelling the execution of the transaction.
- 11.16. The Company reserves the right at its own discretion, without the Client's consent, due to risk management policies to transfer Client's execution to STP/ECN execution including without limitation when the Client's trading strategy, exposes the Company to greater risk than the Company can tolerate.
- 11.17. The Company may in its sole discretion reject any order from the Client but will notify the Client of any such rejection, without giving any reasons, promptly following receipt of the Client's instructions. The Company may cancel any instructions previously given by the Client provided that the Company has not acted on the Client's instructions. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Client acknowledges that the Company may reject orders and/or instructions by the Client when they are not clear when the Client seeks to open a position, close a position or modify or withdraw an order.
- 11.18. Determination of any adjustment or amendment to the opening/closing price, size, value and/or quantity of the Transaction (and/or the level or size of any order) shall be at the Company's sole discretion and shall be conclusive and binding upon the Client. The Company shall inform the Client of any adjustment or amendment via its internal mail as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- 11.19. The Client will not be entitled to interest and/or dividends and/or any voting rights and/or any other rights in connection to the underlying indices and/or their respective connected securities and/or funds in the Company's or Trader's Account. The Trader will only be entitled to the redemption of Trader's Equity. It is hereby clarified that the Company withholds the above-mentioned dividends in order to cover expenses for custodianship and other related expenses.

The Company reserves, in case of corporate event(s) as defined below, the right to one of the following procedures:

- a. If any underlying asset/security of the Financial Instrument offered by the Company becomes subject to a specific risk resulting in a predicted fall in value, the Company reserves the right to restrict short selling or even to withdraw the specific Financial Instrument from the Company's trading Platform.
- b. Determination of any adjustment or amendment to the opening/closing price, size, value and/or quantity of the Transaction (and/or the level or size of any order) shall be at the Company's sole discretion and shall be conclusive and binding upon the Client. The Company shall inform the Client of any adjustment or amendment by written notice sent either by regular mail or email, or through the Electronic Trading Platform as soon as is reasonably practicable.

- c. In the case where the Client has any Open Positions on the ex-dividend day for any of the underlying assets/ securities of the Financial Instrument, the Company has the right to close such positions at the last price of the previous trading day and open the equivalent volume of the underlying Financial Instrument at the first available price on the ex-dividend day. In this case, the Company will inform the Client of the said adjustment, by written notice sent either by regular mail or email, or through the Electronic Trading Platform as soon as is reasonably practicable, and no Client consent will be required.
 - d. Close such positions at the last price of the previous trading day and open the equivalent volume of the Financial Instrument at the first available price on the ex-dividend day.
 - e. Leave such positions open and incur all costs on the Client (important notice: while opening a “short” position on an underlying index and their respective connected securities that might be involved in a corporate event, the Company shall adjust the Client account with such cost and shall notify the Client as soon as reasonably practicable).
- 11.20. Corporate Events are the declarations by the issuer of a connected security to the underlying indices of the terms of any of the following but not limited to:
- a. A subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of shares, a share buy-back or cancellation, or a free distribution of shares to existing shareholders by way of a bonus, capitalization or similar issue, or distribution of dividend (in cash or otherwise);
 - b. A distribution to existing holders of the underlying shares of additional shares, other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or proceeds of liquidation of the issuer equally proportionately with such payments to holders of the underlying shares, or securities, rights or warrants granting the right to a distribution of shares or to purchase, subscribe or receive shares, in any case of payment (in cash or otherwise) at less than the prevailing market price per share as determined by the Company;
 - c. Any other event in respect of the shares analogous to any of the above events or otherwise having a diluting or concentrating effect on the market value of the shares.
 - d. Any event analogous to any of the above events or otherwise having diluting or concentrating effect on the market value of any security not based on shares;
 - e. Any event that is caused by a merger offer made regarding the company of the underlying asset/security; The Company bears no responsibility for notifying the Client regarding announcements of Corporate Events.
- 11.21. The Company will be entitled to rely and act on any Order without any further enquiry, and the Company will consider any Orders to be binding upon the Client where such Order has been placed and transmitted by the Client using his own Access Data/Access Codes via the Company’s Trading Platform.
- 11.22. Orders can be transmitted for execution, modified or removed only within the operating (trading) time as set out on the Company’s website from to time and if they are not executed they shall remain effective through the next trading session.
- 11.23. The Company may allow a third party to act on behalf of the Client in all business relationships/activities with the Company as defined in this Agreement with the provision and execution of a Power of Attorney. The Company may allow and accept the Power of Attorney only when the Client’s representative full identification documents are provided to the Company for review. In the case the Power of Attorney is of indefinite period, it will be considered valid by the Company and until the Client provides in writing his request to terminate the Power of Attorney.

In addition to the above, The Client has the right, at his own risk, to use a Power of Attorney to authorize a third person (representative) to act on behalf of the Client in all business relationships with the Company as defined in this Agreement provided that:

- a. the Client has informed the Company in writing in such a manner as the Company may at any time determine,
- b. the authorized person has been approved by the Company
- c. that both the Client and the authorized person have fulfilled such conditions, including the execution of such document, that the Company may at any time and at its discretion determine

Unless the Company receives a written notification from the Client for the termination of such representative authorisation, in such a manner as the Company may at any time determine, the Company may continue accepting instructions and/or Orders given by such representative on behalf of the Client, and the Client shall recognise such Orders as valid and binding. The written notification by the Client for the termination of the authorisation of the representative must be received by the Company with at least two (2) Business Days' prior notice.

The Company reserves the right at its discretion and without notice to the Client, to refuse to accept instructions from any authorized person and to consider the appointment of any such authorized person as terminated. Furthermore, the Company may, at any time and at its discretion, reject any existing and previously accepted power of attorney between the Client and any authorised representative, and may reverse any relevant Transactions and restore the affected Trading Accounts' Balance.

- 11.24. The Client acknowledges that orders shall be executed at the bid and ask prices that are offered by the Company. Due to the high volatility of the market as well as the internet connectivity between the Client terminal and the Company' server or the Company's Server, the prices requested by the Client and the current market price may change in the period between the Client placing his order with the Company the time the order is executed. The Client acknowledges that in the case of any communication or technical failure which results in the quotation of off- market prices on the quotes feed (i.e. prices to freeze/stop updating or price spikes), The Company reserves the right not to execute an order or, in cases where the order was executed, to change the opening and/or closing price of a particular order or to cancel the aforesaid executed order.
- 11.25. The Company shall not be liable for any delays, inaccuracies or other errors in the transmission of any order, instruction or information from the Client to the Company and also from the Company to its Counterparty due to any cause beyond the reasonable control of the Company. Delays can be caused by various reasons depending on the current market conditions (e.g. high market volatility) as well as a slow/weak internet connection (e.g. between the Client's terminal and the Company' server).
- 11.26. While trading, you might encounter system errors that are resulted from hardware and/or software failures. The result of any system failure may be that your order is either not executed according to your instructions, and/or executed without instructions from your side and/or executed with account balance errors and discrepancies or not executed at all. We will not be liable for the resulting errors in your Account balances. We reserve the right to make the necessary corrections or adjustments on the Account involved.
- 11.27. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Company shall be entitled to record all conversations/communications between the Client and the Company or any representative thereof and maintain such records at its discretion and without further notice (unless required to do so by applicable Regulation). Such records will be the Company's property and shall be accepted by the Client as evidence of his/her orders or instructions. The Company has the right to use recordings and/or transcripts thereof for any purpose which it deems desirable. The Client can request to receive these records from the Company.

- 11.28. “Manifest Error” means a manifest or obvious misquote by the Company, or any market, liquidity provider or official price source on which the Company has relied in connection with any Transaction, having regard to the current market conditions at the time an order is placed as the Company may reasonably determine. When determining whether a situation amounts to a Manifest Error, the Company may take into account any information in its possession, including information concerning all relevant market conditions and any error in, or lack of clarity of, any information source or announcement. The Company will, when making a determination as to whether a situation amounts to a Manifest Error, act fairly towards the Client but the fact that the Client may have entered into, or refrained from entering into, a corresponding financial commitment, contract or Transaction in reliance on an order placed with the Company (or that the Client has suffered or may suffer any loss) will not be taken into account by the Company in determining whether there has been a Manifest Error.
- 11.29. In respect of any Manifest Error, the Company may (but will not be obliged to):
- a. Amend the details of each affected Transaction to reflect what the Company may reasonably determine to be the correct or fair terms of such Transaction absent such Manifest Error;
 - b. Declare any or all affected Transactions void, in which case all such Transactions will be deemed not to have been entered into.
- 11.30. The Company will not be liable to the Client for any loss (including any loss of profits, income or opportunity) that the Client or any other person may suffer or incur as a result of or in connection with any Manifest Error (including any Manifest Error by the Company) or the Company’s decision to maintain, amend or declare void any affected Transaction, except to the extent that such Manifest Error resulted from the Company’s own wilful default or fraud, as determined by a competent court in a final, non-appealable judgment.
- 11.31. The Company reserves the right to proceed with partial execution of Client’s Order if deems appropriate and after consideration of the volume of the Client’s Order and the prevailing market conditions.
- 11.32. All orders are placed in lot sizes. A lot is a unit measuring the transaction amount and it is different for each type of Instrument as set out on the Company’s Trading Platform and website and updated from time to time. Details of the lot sizes for a given Financial Instrument type are available in the Company’s Trading Platform and website and Clients acknowledge that it is their responsibility to review the said details and become familiar with. Clients further acknowledge and accept that even though in some cases there is no maximum size of an order which the Client can place with the Company, the Company reserves the right to decline an order, in case the size of the order is large and cannot be filled.
- 11.33. Trading leveraged products such as CFDs involves substantial risk of loss and the Client may lose all of his/her invested capital. The Company operates on a ‘Negative Balance Protection’ for Retail Clients Only; this means that the Client cannot lose more than his/her overall investment.
- 11.34. Clients acknowledge that while they can set their leverage level as described in the “Leverage Policy” found in the Legal Documentation Section in the Company’s Main Website, the Company reserves the right to change the Contract Specification, including leverage and spreads, at any time without Clients’ consent, depending on the prevailing market conditions either permanently or for a limited period of time. Clients acknowledge that it is their responsibility to review and become familiar with the Contract Specification available on the Company’s Trading Platform prior to placing any Order.
- 11.35. Financing Fee(s) are based on prevailing market interest rates, which may vary over time. In the case of financing fee(s) the value of opened positions in some types of Instruments through the Company’s MT4 Trading Platform is increased or reduced by a daily financing fee “swap rate” throughout the life (i.e. duration) of the contract including Company’s fee for having a position opened overnight. The Company at its own discretion may change the level of ‘swap rate’ at any given time and Clients acknowledge that notification of such change will take place on the Company’s Trading Platform and Main Website. Details of daily financing fees applied are available on the Company’s Trading Platform and the main website. In the event that the Company suspects that the client has engaged in Trading Abuse, the former has the right to amend the swap rates of a specific Client and this right is without prejudice to the Company’s rights conferred to the Company by virtue of this Agreement.

- 11.36. Costs: For opening a position in some types of Financial Instruments the Client may be required to pay commission, the amount of which is disclosed on the Company’s Trading Platform and on the Legal Documentation of the main Website. Commissions may be charged either in the form of a percentage of the overall value of the trade or as fixed amounts.
- 11.37. Clients acknowledge and accept that if they transmit and/or place any Order to the Company which is in breach of any part of this Agreement, the Company at its absolute discretion has the right to activate any of the provisions under Paragraph 35 of this Agreement. For instance such a breach includes but is not limited to any Order that is placed with the use of additional functionalities/ plug-ins that affect the reliability and/or smooth operation of the Company’s Trading Platform or when Client are trading in a way with the aim to take advantage of price disparities resulting from rate/occasional price latencies with the purpose of benefiting from a possible pricing arbitrage/ riskless profit to the Company’s detriment as result of the use of additional functionalities/ plug-ins or any other means.
- 11.38. Client’s Orders such as Stop Loss, Take Profit, Buy Limit, Buy Stop, Sell Limit, Sell Stop are executed at the available prevailing market price. However, in the case of any communication or technical failure as well as any incorrect reflection on the quotes feed (i.e. prices to freeze/to stop updating or price spikes), the Company reserves the right not to execute the order or in case the order was executed to change the opening and/or closing price of a specific transaction or to cancel the said executed order.
- 11.39. Internet, connectivity delays, and price feed errors sometimes create a situation where there is price latency on the Electronic Systems such that there is a disparity between the Company quoted prices and current market prices for short periods. Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that it shall not execute Transactions with the Company that rely on price latency arbitrage opportunities either by using additional functionalities/plug-ins (i.e. Expert Adviser, etc.) or by any other means. If the Client acts in contravention of this paragraph the Company reserves the right to
- a. make corrections or adjustments to the relevant Transaction execution prices to reflect what would have occurred had there been no price latency arbitrage; and/or
 - b. cancel all the relevant Transactions; and/or
 - c. terminate without notice the Client’s Account with the Company; and/or
 - d. charge an administration fee to the Client’s Account that the Company will set in its sole and absolute discretion.
- 11.40. The Company is under no obligation, unless otherwise agreed in the Agreement, to monitor or advise the Client on the status of any Transaction or to close out any Client’s Open Positions. When the Company decides to do so, this will be done on a discretionary basis and will not be considered an undertaking of an obligation to continue.
- 11.41. It is the Client’s responsibility to be aware of his positions at all times.
- 11.42. By entering into this Agreement, the Client acknowledges that he/she understands and agrees that the Company is the sole counterparty and therefore when the Company executes a transaction for (or with) the Client it may be engaging in a similar trading for (or with) other clients, Company's affiliated companies, or for own account, subject to the provisions of Applicable Regulation.

- 11.43. There are a number of situations where the Company will not owe the Client any duties of best execution (as more fully set out in the information regarding our Order Execution Policy). These include without limitation the following scenario. When the Client gives specific instructions to the Company and the Company executes Client's order in accordance with those instructions, the Company will have discharged its duties to the extent of those instructions.
- 11.44. When executing orders on Client's behalf the Company will do this in accordance with its Order Execution Policy as amended from time to time to which the Client consent. Company's Order Execution Policy is presented together with this Agreement. The latest version of Company's Order Execution Policy will also be available on the Company Website or from Client's usual contact with the Company.
- 11.45. The Company has the right at its absolute discretion to increase or decrease the spreads of any Financial Instrument depending on the current market conditions and the characteristics of Client's order.
- 11.46.
