Office Access Rules for Dianne Whelan

082-2021 Grice, A.

Be it resolved that:

Dianne Whelan is only allowed to attend the office with prior notice and an appointment.

The nature of her business must be stated in advance

The timing of the appointment must be approved by Administration, when a councilor is available if the business can be conducted in the office, and if two councilors are available if documents must be examined in the hall. Appointments in the office will only be permitted to pick up copies of documents. Appointments in the hall will be limited to one hour.

All appointments will be videotaped in their entirety.

Further attempts to access the office without meeting these specifications will be viewed as harassment, and criminal charges will be laid.
