Bello Tables

There's something great about a classic, especially when we put our Hightower spin on it. Bello Tables exude easy and timeless design but are kicked up a notch with details like powder coated steel and playful round legs. No matter the location, Bello will feel right at home in any lounge setting.

Part of the Crew

The powder coated steel supports and rounded wood legs of Bello mirror the design of other Hightower Studio pieces, including the Arlo and Tombolo. Assort any combination of these items to build out a comfortable lounge area that's a total no-brainer!
