Nest Collection in Wood

The line between home and public spaces is increasingly blurred, and the Nest Collection in Wood is a prime example of pieces that bring the comforts of home into our everyday lives. Inspired by the way people convene and work, this collection is intended to contribute to casual and collaborative spaces that are as stylish as they are comfortable.

Curving Comfort

The rounded shapes of the Nest Collection are expressive of Nordic design while making for an extremely comfortable place to work or relax. The curved back and seat of the chair and sofa wrap around you with a supportive embrace, while the wooden legs bring warmth and a classic appeal to the design.

A Seat at the Table

Any seat is a good seat when it's paired with the exquisitely crafted Nest Wood Tables. Whether used in a lounge, café, or meeting setting, the warmth and texture of these pieces exudes quality and timelessness. Find the right size to suit your space from 6 different options in solid soaped oak.
