Phase Cork Side Table with Power

Naturally soft in its texture, cork was synonymous with sustainability long before the term became a modern must-have. Phase is a small, sturdy, and movable power-enabling side table.

The side view of Phase playfully resembles the shape of a wine cork, and happens to be made of high quality cork from Portugal. The top view is reminiscent of a waning moon, hence the name, Phase. This powerful side table is great for recharging in common areas, individual workspaces, or team breakrooms.
