

Work For VWN

If your source of income is based solely on freelance gigs, you'll have a hard time getting a stable source of income.

Side gig, side hustle → transitional step, prove you can get money from doing what you want.

If it goes well, you can go pro

If you get better, you can become so good that you can be an entrepreneur yourself.

Any great company will help you transition to your calling

Company work should be a mutual transaction for how many years you work for them.

Gig → Upwork, Fiverr

Pro → employee

Entrepreneur → do your own thing

Companies should mentor you and give you opportunities to learn from the job. Eventually, you'd want to go independent.

Going from freelance to pro is a big step.

VWN offers a shortcut to circumvent that big step.

VWN is a training ground for our employees.

VWN connects individuals with clients in Europe and US and North America.
