World Tunnel Congress 2025, in Stockholm, Sweden

9–15 May 2025

Introduction

The 2025 World Tunnel Congress (WTC2025), the world's top tunnel and underground engineering industry congress, will be held in Stockholm, Sweden from 9 to 15, May, 2025. This congress will focus on the latest trends and sustainable development trends in tunnel and underground engineering. In order to promote the development of the industry and the progress of society, the congress advocate energy-saving, environmentally friendly, green and low-carbon, intelligent and safe solutions.

WTC2025 (Stockholm) welcomes experts and scholars from all over the world to attend. Sweden's experience of underground construction dates back more than a century. This development is sometimes referred to as being a result of good rock conditions. Examples of early use of the underground, other than for mining purposes, include hydroelectric power plants, traffic tunnels and military facilities, including public shelters.
