ABOUT KATA KATA CARTOON MAGAZINE

Kata Kata is an authentic African cartoon magazine with both online and printed versions. In a humorous way, Kata Kata tries to discuss and sensitize typical African / global socio - political issues, mainly through illustrations, animations etc. Furthermore, through its social network (Kata Kata Community), it tries to keep those cultural entities alive by stimulating personal interactions and exchange of ideas amongst the readers.

At the same time, Kata Kata equally offers a maxim that life is perhaps not all about seriousness. One needs some laughs and relaxation to face serious challenges in life.

The duality of Kata Kata is such that it tries to discuss serious issues, at the same time, it offers a therapy for the problems through laughter.

The quarterly printed edition of Kata Kata is widely available in the Netherlands and some countries in Europe. Equally, the digital version of Kata Kata can also be read online or subscribed to via Kata Kata website or Magzter, the world's largest digital newsstand with more than 20 million readers.

See: <https://www.magzter.com/NL/Kata-Kata-Cartoon-Magazine/Kata-Kata-Cartoon-Magazine/Comics/>

With our East African edition, our readers in East African countries can now enjoy our humorous Kata Kata Magazine. Likewise, the magazine can be read or borrowed from different libraries globally, including Stanford University Library, USA, Federal / Royal Library (Koninklijke Bibliotheek) Den Haag, (Netherlands), University of Leiden Library -African Studies (Netherlands), University of Iowa (Main Library), USA, Southern Africa Library, Basel, Switzerland etc.

(Bangubangu, DRC)

Mzazi arekebishaye mtoto wake makosa kwa kiboko, hajakosea. (Swahili)

Le bâton d'un parent qui corrige son enfant ne lui fait du mal. (French)

The parent who corrects his or her child with a rod does not sin. (English)

Explanation: A child does not belong to a family, but to the whole society, hence anything done to the child to make them become a better person and productive to the society must be encouraged. If a child is not corrected, any bad influence from them can affect the whole society negatively. Likewise, any action from individuals aimed towards social progress must be encouraged.

Publisher's note

Dreaming your own dream

Life is the mother of endless dreams and aspirations. To make your dream come through, you must first set out goals and have ambitions in life. But you cannot talk about pursuing your goals or planning the strategies to achieve them without first knowing exactly what you really want in life. Nor can you achieve much by trying to live the life of others. Everyone has their own dream in life. You must dream your own dream, and never allow others to dream for you.

Our time is very limited on earth. Every single ticking of the clock brings one a step closer to their ultimate end, hence time is a luxury, which calls for wise decisions and aims in life. Those who make it in life are those who refused to dream the dream of others, despite frustrations and setbacks.

Every human being is blessed with special talents – no matter your position. You just need to discover your talent and work towards turning it into a productive and useful end. You don't need to be rich or educated to have a talent, the natural gift. However, it is expected that you use your talent to change your life and those of others positively. Sadly, the greatest percentage of the problems facing the world today is because human beings misuse their talents. Some people misuse their talents because they did not even bother to know what their talent is. Others try to imitate or emulate others, only to end up in self-pity and - if not - destruction. Of course, there are others who waste their talents and dream due to nonchalance or laziness.

You basically cannot achieve much in life without a positive attitude towards life. Your positive attitude is the ultimate key to new possibilities. A positive attitude makes you more resilient and it can even prolong your life. Yes, life comes with ups and downs, but the most important thing in life is to learn from those downs and make the ups better. Your disappointments or challenges should be your teacher or classroom where you learn from. Be positive despite all the obstacles. Naturally, those hurdles on the road could slow you down, but never allow them to hold you up. With a positive attitude to life, you will surely reach your destination and achieve your life dreams.

What exactly do we want in life? Live in self-pity? Undertake a task or journey we truly know we are not capable of completing, simply because that would make others have a positive impression of us? Do we do things just to please others, even though we know our actions might be unfruitful? That would mean living in a borrowed robe; living others' lives.

Is Useni listening? Can his daughter convince him otherwise? Definitely, she needs to convince him he is too old to enter the military. Chances are that Useni would not listen to her; in that case, we need to let him know that the military has its own structure and code of conduct, which include "obey before complain" and respect for the rank.

Let us quickly call Useni's attention before he gets more punishment and setbacks in life.

Yours in Kata Kata,
Ogo Ubabukoh
