FULL BIO

Ben Chini is an independent Belgian melodic house & techno producer and live artist based in Eindhoven, The Netherlands. With over a decade of experience behind the decks and in the studio, he has developed a signature sound that is 100% handcrafted: no AI, no Splice, just human imperfection. Since his debut release in 2025, he has surpassed 200,000 streams across platforms. His single Solace entered the Beatport Top 100 during ADE, peaking at #32, and also received support from Deep Dish on Adam Beyer's Drumcode Radio.
