Today is a warm and sunny day. Nina and Georgi are in the beginning of their summer holiday. They are in their grandparent's village. It is small, but beautiful. There are a forest and a river next to the village.

The children are excited to see their grandparents. An old saying says, that to Granny you need to go hungry. Grandma Violeta is very good at cooking. Here is her table: some chicken soup, sausages, shopska salad, chips and a delicious homemade chocolate cake.

This is the best beginning of the holiday! They have delicious food, clean air and a big garden to play in. But the children also expect a lot of adventures!

READING 4

📖 Read the text. (Прочети текста):

Granny: Nina, today we have to think about Pisana's kittens. They are six. We can't take care of so many cats, dear.

Nina: Oh, Granny, but they are so cute. I'm very sad they can't stay with us.

Granny: I know, dear, but I have got an idea. You have got a lot of friends in the village. I'm sure you can find a home for all the kittens.

Nina: That's a good idea, Granny! This way I can see them when I see my friends. Oh, I can organize a "Goodbye party". Pisana has to know who is going to take care of her kittens.

Here is a sheet of paper. I am going to make a TO-DO list:

First: I have to make invitations.

Second: I have to give them to my friends.

Third: I have to make some sweets and some juice for my guests.

Fourth: I have to make lists of what the kittens like to eat.

Granny, do you think my friends will love the kittens like me?

Granny: Of course, dear, they are so beautiful. I'm sure your friends are going to be very happy. And they are going to love and take care of their pets like you. Let's feed the kittens now. I am going to bring some milk.
