

ETIT Profile

Background

ETIT is an established Company carrying all tracking and fleet management of Egypt for more than 10 years of experience from Professionals Expert with wide and depth knowledge in different ICT technologies (security, IT, Professional Services), blended together to bring a new value-added service in the market in order to respond to the massive increase to the customer needs and demands

ETIT structured the internal company departments to be more focused on the customer centric approach, shaped their product services and portfolio in order to meet our customer demand and satisfaction by providing a suitable solution with value-added service.

Our Goal is to be the Market leader in high technology Security & Tracking Solution Services Provider so our Expansion strategy is based on short- and long-term approach.

Our Vision

“Whatever you have, we have a solution & professionally Track...” ETIT Business Philosophy and Commitment Is to Assure the Highest Quality Technical Solutions, Consulting Services, Total Customer Satisfaction, Realistic Timely Delivery of Solution and Pricing Structure, A Consistently High Standard of Customer Focused Service around Their Needs, Flexible Approach to Design Using The best-fit customer need

We are striving to provide you the Best Solutions to take control and monitor your assets in real time, enables you to control the usage of all assets to keep an overview (locations, routes, stop times, sensors and conditions):

We aim to be recognized through the market as a Leading tracking service and solution provider proved that reducing costs by improving safety, security and efficiency.

Our delivered technology provides insights into operations, workplace conditions, access management, security threats and personnel compliance.

Best Practices with Focused Project Management and Focusing on security and Quality of Deliverables through Process Leaders.

Aiming to Make Our Services and Business Solutions are all built around your needs

Effective management of assets, increase in business efficiency, Increase in people safety,

Decrease in consumptions as cost, decrease in accidents which cause loss of lives and money.

Our Mission

To Provide the Best and Right solution for our customers by delivering high quality Products, ETIT is an end-to-end Solutions and technologies provider.

There are a Keen Focus to Satisfy clients through timely delivery of products and services. Our Culture of listening and working closely with our customers has been and will always be our objective. ETIT Believes That Enabling and securing your Enterprise in the new economy is best achieved by having a thorough understanding of the real-world needs and problems your business is facing, with this Unique Understanding, we go beyond simple fixes to truly innovative, effective and lasting solutions that build on what you have.

We Keen to offer the best Products and services to our clients, provide the finest working environment for our employees, and deliver the highest value to our shareholders

Business

The core business of ETIT is the supply of integrated high-tech solutions to both the Egyptian market and the region. ETIT offers a wide range of integrated products and customized solutions to satisfy varying business needs and environments.

Casting a wide net over the technology sector, ETIT' business activities include sales, support and services for large-scale computer systems, software, telecommunications software solutions, Internet security systems, telecommunications products and turnkey project management.

People

ETIT's major investment lies in its people. They are the solid foundation upon which the Quality Management System is built. That is why ETIT implements a carefully managed selection process to ensure that only the most qualified candidates are employed.

ETIT also provides an effective training curriculum for its staff members to ensure the update of their knowledge, skills and abilities to match the high standard of offered products and services.

Previous work and projects

The Egyptian Company for Tracking and Information Technology Services is a service provider of real-time tracking services for assets, equipment and vehicles in the Arab Republic of Egypt. The company supplies, installs and operates automated tracking systems and fleet management for most state agencies and companies and ministries from the public and private sectors for insurance, controlling movements and reducing costs.

First: The project of the control system in all land, air and sea ports of the Republic and issuing electronic visas for the benefit of the Passports Authority at the Ministry of Interior, where the following is done:

Second: EgyptAir Data Center Development Project The work is summarized as follows:

Third: Alexandria Container Company Port Camera Surveillance Systems Project in Dekheila. The work is summarized as follows:

2. Supplying and installing surveillance cameras of various types
3. Preparing the necessary infrastructure to connect the cameras to the system management center
4. Carrying out the necessary maintenance work 24/7/365

Fourth: The project of the secure stamp system indicating the payment of taxes imposed on cigarettes, products and bandrols for the Ministry of Finance (a contract for a period of 6 years). The work is summarized as follows:

1. Designing and implementing a secure system to tighten control over sales and the tax due on them from the source
2. Supplying the necessary labels and bandrols for the production lines
3. Supplying equipment for detecting labels and immediate tracking

Fifth: The project of contracting with the Ministry of Finance to supply raw metal coins and all the equipment necessary for the production of metal coins, as the company is the exclusive agent for the company.

Ashraf Mohamed Eliwa

CEO and Chairman

ashraf.eliwa@etit-eg.com

