5. Local Device Storage

The current version of the Service primarily stores task information locally on your device.

Data stored locally remains under your control and may be removed by deleting the application or clearing application data, subject to platform limitations.

6. Future Cloud Storage and Synchronization

Future versions of TidyDo may offer cloud synchronization functionality.

When enabled, information may be stored and processed using:

- Supabase
- Cloud infrastructure providers
- Authentication providers

Cloud synchronization may include:

- Tasks
- Rooms

- Settings
- Shared household information
- Account preferences

Users may choose whether to enable synchronization where such options are provided.

7. Shared Lists and Collaboration

Future versions of the Service may allow users to share information with invited participants.

Shared information may become visible to:

- Household members
- Family members
- Friends
- Other invited users

Users are solely responsible for selecting participants and determining what information is shared.

We are not responsible for information voluntarily shared with other users.

8. Push Notifications

The Service may send:

- Reminder notifications
- Task notifications
- Product updates
- Service announcements

Notification permissions can be managed through your device settings.

You may disable notifications at any time.

We do not guarantee delivery of notifications.

9. Analytics Providers

Amplitude

We use Amplitude to understand product usage and improve user experience.

Amplitude may process information such as:

- Usage events
- Device information
- Session information
- Interaction data

Amplitude processes information according to its own privacy practices.

Adapty

We use Adapty for subscription management and purchase analytics.

Adapty may process:

- Subscription status
- Product identifiers
- Purchase events
- Trial events
- Revenue analytics

Adapty does not process your payment card information.

10. Third-Party Service Providers

We may share limited information with service providers that assist us in operating the Service.

Examples include:

- Analytics providers
- Subscription providers
- Cloud infrastructure providers
- Authentication providers
- Customer support tools

These providers may access information only as necessary to perform services on our behalf.

11. Legal Basis for Processing (GDPR)

Where GDPR applies, we process information based on:

Contract Performance

To provide requested services.

Legitimate Interests

To improve and secure the Service.

Legal Obligations

To comply with applicable laws.

Consent

Where consent is required, including certain notifications and future optional features.

12. International Transfers

Information may be transferred to and processed in countries outside your country of residence.

We take reasonable measures to ensure appropriate protection of personal information during such transfers.

13. Data Retention

We retain information only as long as reasonably necessary to:

- Provide the Service
- Maintain accounts
- Resolve disputes
- Enforce agreements
- Meet legal obligations

Retention periods may vary depending on the nature of the information.

14. Account Deletion

When account functionality becomes available, users will be able to request deletion of their account and associated personal information.

Account deletion may result in:

- Removal of account information
- Removal of synchronization data
- Removal of shared content ownership
- Loss of access to premium account features tied to that account

Certain information may be retained where legally required.

15. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on your jurisdiction, you may have rights to:

- Access personal information
- Correct inaccurate information
- Delete personal information
- Restrict processing
- Object to processing
- Withdraw consent
- Request data portability

Requests may be submitted to:

vovaflames@gmail.com

16. California Privacy Rights (CCPA)

California residents may have rights to:

- Know what personal information is collected
- Request deletion
- Request correction
- Access collected information

TidyDo does not sell personal information.

We do not knowingly share personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising.

17. Children's Privacy

The Service is not intended for children under the age of 13.

We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13.

If we become aware that personal information from a child under 13 has been collected, we will take reasonable steps to remove such information.

18. Security

We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect information.

However, no method of storage, transmission, or processing is completely secure.

Accordingly, we cannot guarantee absolute security.

19. Business Transfers

If TidyDo or its assets are acquired, merged, reorganized, or sold, information may be transferred as part of the transaction.

Any successor entity will remain subject to applicable privacy obligations.

20. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically.

Updated versions will be posted within the Service or otherwise made available to users.

The "Last Updated" date will reflect the effective date of changes.

Continued use of the Service following updates constitutes acceptance of the revised Privacy Policy.
