This brand-new three-bed home is conveniently located in Revere's desirable Beachmont neighborhood. This property has been rebuilt from the foundation and expanded for today's lifestyle. Enter the front door and go up the staircase to a light and bright living area featuring an open layout, large windows, vaulted ceilings, convenient full bathroom, and soaring ocean views. The two-tone shaker kitchen features stainless steel appliances, quartz countertops, and a waterfall island. The open living area flows to double sliders connecting this space to a beautiful composite deck for indoor/outdoor entertaining. The lower level features three well-proportioned bedrooms including a primary ensuite. One additional bathroom, laundry room, ample storage, and a mudroom area complete this floor. The revamped backyard offers additional entertaining and outdoor space with a new deck, walkway, and shed. Other features include fresh landscaping, fiber cement siding, a new roof, vinyl windows, two zone heating/cooling, one off-street parking spot, and bonus storage space in the basement.
