1. Michael James Organisation's Auctions are subject to a reserve / upset price.
2. The sale by auction is subject to reserve prices as imposed by the Auctioneer's principle or owner. A notice has been posted in this regard advising the bidders and consumers that the auction is subject to reserve prices in compliance with section 45(4)(a) of the Act.
3. The rules of this auction comply with section 45 of the Consumer Protection Act, Act 68 of 2008 ("the Act") and the regulations thereto.
4. The following provisions are brought to the consumers and the bidders attention: Section 45 subsection (1), (2) and (3) of the Act provides that:
  - a) In this section, "auction" includes a sale in execution of, or pursuant to a court order to the extent that the order contemplates that the sale is to be conducted by an auction.
  - b) When goods are put up for sale by auction in lots, each lot is, unless there is evidence to the contrary, regarded to be the subject of a separate transaction.
  - c) A sale by auction is complete when the Auctioneer announces its completion by the fall of the hammer, or in any other customary manner and until that announcement is made, a bid may be retracted.
5. A buyer making the highest accepted bid for a lot shall become the Purchaser immediately should such lots have been knocked down to him. Should there be any dispute whatsoever over, or in respect of any lot, the Auctioneer shall be entitled to settle such dispute at his sole discretion which shall include, but not be limited to, the absolute discretion to re-sell such lot or declare any bidder to be the Purchaser. No party shall have a claim for damages of any nature in the event of the Auctioneer settling any dispute. The Auctioneer's decision is final and binding on all the buyers. All bidders must register prior to bidding, a bid taken from an unregistered person will be invalid.

6. The Auctioneer, the owner, or the agent of the owner shall be entitled to bid up to the reserve price on behalf of the owner, but shall not be entitled to make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. If no bid equals or exceeds the reserve price, the lot may be withdrawn from the auction. A notice has been posted in this regard advising the bidders and consumers that the Auctioneer, the owner, or the agent of the owner shall be entitled to bid up to the reserve price in compliance with section 45(4)(b) of the Act. The Seller shall be entitled to instruct the Auctioneer to accept any lower bid.
7. All assets are sold separately as contemplated in Section 45 of the Act subject to the Seller's or owners right to reserve prices, upset prices and/or to bid on each lot.
8. The Auctioneer is not liable in any way for any defects, failures, or hazards in any offered or auctioned goods (lots). All lots are auctioned or offered as they are or stand (voetstoots).
9. In making a bid, a bidder shall be deemed to have made himself fully acquainted with the goods in the lot for which he bids. All lots, and/or assets are open for inspection and we kindly request that all viewing and inspection be done prior to the auction as neither the Auctioneer, the auction house, nor the Seller accepts any responsibility for the repair or maintenance of any goods sold at auction.
10. During the auction the Auctioneer shall announce the reason for the auction, unless that reason is the normal and voluntary disposal of goods by the owner.
