[Read now] 4 of 4 review helpful a refreshing breeze of humanity in a nihilistic world By David Greusel Solomon s book was just the tonic I needed to regain my faith in the real value of the design professions I had begun to despair that I was the only person who found the Prada posing of Rem Koolhaas and his ilk reminded me ever so much of the children s story The Emperor s New Clothes Solomon is apparently another like minded so Global City Blues is my first book that I read. This is a wonderful Global City Blues I ever had. It makes a wonderful experience at the beginning when I get used to using my spare time to read books. You also have to feel this wonderful experience.
