Guarantee a Positive First Impression

You never get a second chance to make a great first impression. Wherever video walls go, they are the centerpiece of attention.

Increased Flexibility, Scalability, and Creativity

Deploying a video wall allows ever-changing content like promotions, graphics news, dashboards, and other information to be easily managed, changed, and controlled.

Easy Configuration and Control

Popshap simplifies the configuration and operation of video walls, giving users absolute control of what they want to display, where and how on the video wall.

Corner the Market on Visual Superiority

A video wall consists of several display panels placed together. This means that the total resolution of the display increases with each panel added.

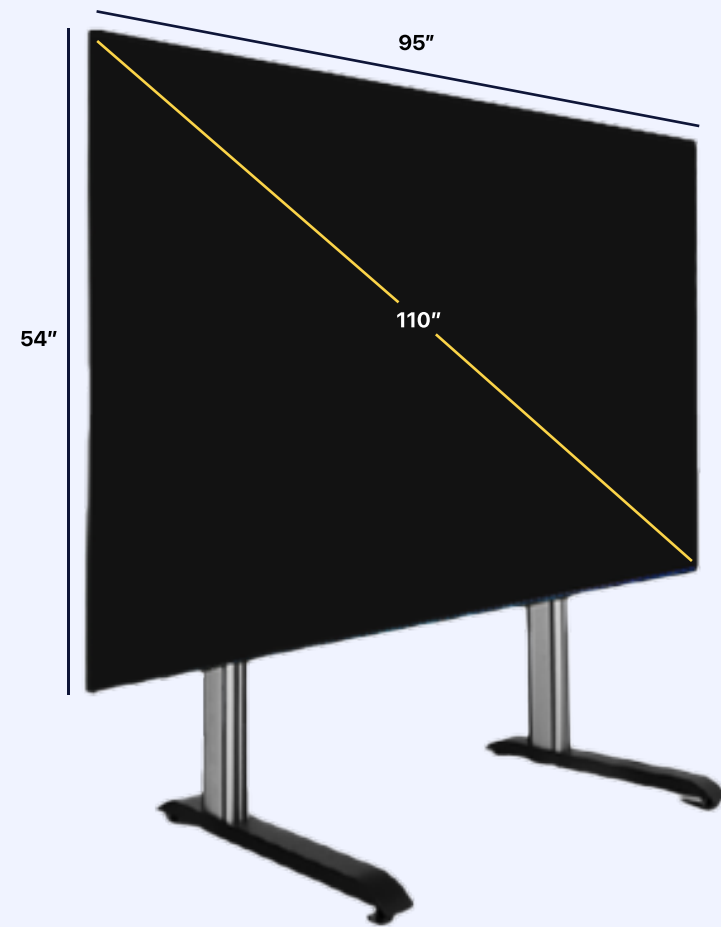

Looks Modern and Sharp

The modern feel and sharp aesthetic reflect positively on the brand. At trade shows, a video wall sells the idea of sophistication and luxury.
